

Database Migration

The migration to the new cluster completed in November. Latency improved by 38 percent across all read paths. The rollout affected three regions and required a brief maintenance window, primarily because the connection pooling configuration had to be rebuilt for the new topology. No data loss occurred during the migration and no rollback was required.

Cost Impact

Monthly infrastructure spend decreased from 82000 to 61000 dollars following the migration.